PRESIDENTS REPORT

Hello All.

Our new beer garden area has become very popular in the warmer weather, with kids playing in the grassy areas around the club or riding scooters on the concrete, dogs sitting under tables waiting for bits of food to fall, and people enjoying a beer and schnitzel outdoors. You need to go into the club to order, but that is all. Enjoy it – you as members help pay for such improvements to the club, just by coming along and spending your money there. The Austrian Club is not for profit, and our workers are volunteers, so all the money you spend goes into improving the club. Over the past couple of years, we have done many improvements, some which you can see such as the BBQ tables, the carpet and the chairs. Other things include new equipment in the kitchen and general repairs.

Our first two functions this year have gone off like rockets. Most of the people at the Fasching/ Fancy dress party dressed up. We even had King Tutankhamen attending as well as some beautiful young ladies in period ball gowns. The visit in March by the Kreuzberg Rebellen, two musicians from Austria, raised the roof. It was very loud but had to be that way to be heard over the 170 people who crowded into the hall.

We have more functions coming up which will be just as lively. On April 27th, the very popular Geoff Power's orchestra will play, and we will be hosting the Danish Clubs, so beware of Vikings! On May 25th we will have the Tirolean Night – get your dirndls and lederhosen out. In June we go Italian. Whichever you choose, you will have a great time. Don't forget to come and say hello to me while you are there.

Mark GRABE (9818 4083 or 0408 228 330) president@austrianclubsydney.com.au

ANOTHER DAY FOR THE "OLDIES"

Following the success of the lunch for long time members of the Club last November, the Board invites all of our "oldies" to afternoon tea at the club on Sunday May 19th at 3pm. A special treat – Lotte Landl will be there to play her zither for us. This is sure to bring back many happy memories.

You are welcome to come for lunch at your own expense, but don't forget you will be getting coffee and strudel at 3pm.

Please book with Sylvia 0432 588 013 or Maria 9979 9651

HISTORY OF THE AUSTRIAN CLUB

Getting the Liquor License.

Up until the mid 1980s the club operated on a Functions license, which meant that a separate license had to be applied for each time the club was open and selling alcohol. In those days the club was open on Dance nights - twice a month, from 6pm and on each Sunday from 12 noon until 8pm. The Bauernstube extensions, that is the upstairs dining area and bar were completed in 1986 and needed to be used more often.

Looking through the Kuriers of the time we had some interesting functions. Christmas plays, choir performances, wine festivals with a dirndl parade, a Christmas Bazaar, car rallies and even a cocktail party with "sexotic cocktails served by 3 male mixers!"

Getting the full License was a major operation. Warringah Council objected on the grounds that we did not have enough parking. The matter was taken to court, and eventually, with language help from Bob Smith in the negotiations, and as John Dagn said, because we had a good lawyer, we won a full liquor license in 1990. The club could now operate a full restaurant and serve liquor to its members from the bar. The license did not permit us to have poker machines, which in any case had been rejected by the committee and members, to retain the "friendly family atmosphere."

Events could continue with a commercial restaurant and catering and volunteers could set up events in our own environment. Volunteer work, particularly in the bar, was and still is the major element in controlling costs.

Jenny Wandl using information from Helen Malcher's 50 years of the Austrian Club and from Kurier magazines of the time.

Congratulations to Rick Childs and Karin Adler, both members of the Austrian Club, to be married on 20th April

THE AUSTRIAN AIR RIFLE CLUB

Monthly competition results are:

February		March		April
1 John Reidl	406.3	Eileen Birrell	431.0	Colin Whatman	416.7
2 Kathleen Birrell	400.7	Steve Birrell	388.9	Walter Roth	408.5
3 Alan Price	396.2	Phil Angilley	384.0	Alan Price	396.8

We have introduced Bench Rest shooting which has become very popular within the Air Rifle Association and so most of our members, being handy with tools, have built their own stand on which to rest the rifle. This discipline does produce higher scores generally as the shooter is seated with the rifle resting on a platform but perfect scores are still not a given. It is much more attractive to the new shooter as well - without all the wobbling about, hitting the black happens!

Cabramatta Championship competition – Father and daughter team Steve and Kathleen Birrell attended Cabramatta comp recently, along with club mate Walter Roth. The Austrian Air Rifle Club did very well with Steve coming second in C Grade. He and Kathleen also received individual medals for Rest Grade 2, 1st and 2nd, and a Team medal for Rest Grade 2, 1st place. What a good day and congratulations to the Birrells.

Louise SMITH (mob. 0411157527)

WE NEED YOU

Our bar roster is thin these days and we need new recruits. You need to have your Responsible Service of Alcohol card, or we will help you get one. There are 4 shifts each weekend – Friday and Saturday nights, 6pm till closing, Sunday 12 pm to 4.30pm and 4.30pm till closing. Closing time depends on how busy we are, but rarely later than 10pm and mostly around 9 or 9.30pm. We need you to guarantee 2 shifts per month, unless of course you are away or sick. The work is serving in the bar, clearing tables and washing glasses etc.

Please phone Bar Roster Manager Jutta Grabe on 0466 370 233 or email president@austrianclubsydney.com.au

Geoff Power's Great Gatsby Orchestra are well known in the jazz world for playing hot jazz and dance music from the 20's, 30's and of course The Swing Era, but they play regularly at Sydney's Austrian Club where they play dance music in the European style - you can expect to hear polkas from Germany, waltzes from Austria, sambas from Italy, cha chas, tangos, and of course our famous jive numbers - you might even hear "Wonderful Copenhagen" ! This is Sydney's answer to Andre Rieu !

GOLDEN OLDIES

Last Sunday 25/3 we played with 5 against 5 players. I myself just returned from a month long trip and understood that not many Sundays we could play due to rain in that time. In our 22/2 AGM we agreed that all committee members would be returned with our Golden Oldies club still being in the black. Though we are NOT in a position to plan any outings or big parties at this stage, we are tapering our spending on our annual events to suit a more moderate budget. What is more important is that we continue our weekly games as usual, albeit with smaller teams as long we have more than 8 players who confirm to come to the Ararat Reserve field. So any new players, willing to try it, are welcome as with less than 8 on the pitch, it becomes too much for the older players. See you at the club or on the pitch as often as we can. Lastly I would like to thank our Lady supporters for their cakes and salads on our last New Year's Barbeque, which with 20 people was well attended as usual again.

SCENIC AUSTRIA – Vienna the Austria Centre and Donau Turm

The Austria Center Vienna (ACV) was the main venue in Vienna for the Austrian Presidency of the Council of the EU in 2018. Austria's largest conference centre, it can accommodate 20,000 people and has 24 conference halls for between 100 and 4,320 participants, 180 meeting rooms and 22,000 square metres of exhibition space. The ACV is the only conference centre in the world to be directly connected to a UN headquarters. After a construction period of just under 5 years, it was inaugurated in 1987 and the first UN conference to be held in the ACV was the International Conference on Drug Abuse and Illicit Trafficking in June of the same year. The UN Conference on Human Rights in 1993 is the biggest state conference to be held in Austria to date.

Situated right next to the UN headquarters (UNO City), which you can also visit, the ACV can be reached within 7 minutes by underground (U1 line) from the city centre and is only a few minutes' walk from the Danube and the Danube park. This whole area is worth a visit as a change from the historic parts of Vienna. The 826 feet high Danube Tower and the Donau Park are also in this area. The tallest structure in Austria, the Danube Tower is one of the most iconic landmarks along Vienna's skyline. Overlooking the old city, Danube Park and Vienna Woods, it gives unspoilt panoramas across the city from a unique perspective. Take one of the two express elevators up and admire the views – there's even a rotating restaurant.

How to get there: Underground: U1 Kaisermühlen VIC / Alte Donau; HOP ON HOP OFF: Blue Line: Donauturm

THE BUNDESKANZLER OF AUSTRIA

On 18 December 2017 Sebastian Kurz was sworn in by Federal President Alexander Van der Bellen as Federal Chancellor of Austria (equivalent to the Prime Minister of Australia). The Austrian Federal Chancellor is the head of government. However, he does not have the authority to direct the other members of the Cabinet. The Chancellor and the other members of the Austrian Cabinet, chosen upon his advice, are appointed or removed from office by the Federal President of Austria (head of state). Neither the appointment of the Chancellor nor the appointment of the members of the Austrian Cabinet needs to be confirmed by the Parliament. The Chancellor countersigns the federal acts executed by the President. If the President is unavailable, all his duties are assigned to the Chancellor for a period not to exceed 20 days.

At age 31 Sebastian Kurz became the youngest Chancellor in the history of Austria as well as the youngest democratic leader anywhere in the world. His election banner – the change has begun - heralded a move to the right of political government. Kurz stands for harder borders and a tougher defence of the nation's identity. He says "Those who do not put clear limits on migration will soon start to feel like strangers in their own land." Such fears are changing Europe's political landscape. Austria held the rotating Presidency of The European Union for 6 months in 2018 during which time he emerged as a champion of transformation.

Kurz is a centre right conservative, born of middle-class Viennese parents with a summer home in the countryside. He was still a teenager when he went to work for the Volkspartei – People's Party. He rose swiftly through the party ranks, becoming Foreign Minister on the way to the top. The growth of a populist far right, spreading throughout Europe presented a dilemma. Kurz made his choice. He formed a coalition government in 2017 with the populist and reactionary Freedom Party. The far right and the mainstream have merged during his tenure on the issues that trouble Europe the most, namely identity and immigration. Kurz calls the union a democratic necessity. As Foreign Minister he had negotiated the closing of the border with Austria's neighbours in the Balkans to stem the tide of migrants and refugees.

Sebastian Kurz sees his alliance with the Freedom Party as a bridge to the right and hopes that by giving the far-right party a say in government, he can control them. He looks back to the polarisation and chaos of the 1930s – the endless quarrels between the right wing and the left – until democracy slipped into chaos. The way to avoid that, he says, is through orderly political dialogue with all sides.

PROFILE OF LOTTE LANDL-WILLIAMS

I grew up in an old farmhouse, built in 1902 and still standing strong, in my beautiful home country of Austria. I remember many happy hours with my 12 siblings. Unfortunately, we lost both our parents when I was only very young. My mother apparently played the zither, but I never saw her playing it. When I was about 11, I found my mother's little zither in the loft, embroidered with little Mother of Pearl. After lots of negotiating, I started lessons with the village zither teacher. It was arranged for me to take a can of milk as payment for each lesson. Once a week for one hour, come rain, hail or snow, I trotted half an hour by foot with my zither and can of milk to the village.

For two weeks it was fun, then the blisters on my little fingers appeared and I wanted to stop. But "No, no" was the answer at home, "you wanted it, now carry on". My teacher was very happy with me, even suggesting that I go to the Vienna conservatorium. But something this big for little Lottchen was out of the question. I stopped my lessons after two years because it was time to leave home and earn some money. The zither went with me wherever I went and was my best friend.

I met my Australian husband in the ski resort Wagrain and followed him to London in early 1957 where we married. Apart from having three children, there was excitement with me playing in an Austrian restaurant and taking part in Hughie Green's Opportunity Knocks program which was a very popular weekly TV show.

In 1966 it was time to go and settle in Sydney. Here I met another zither player and after practicing together, we decided to enter in the very popular New Faces TV show. We called ourselves 'Lotte and Johanna' - the Austrian zither girls. We did well on the program and went as far as the semi-finals. Graeme Bell, the well-known jazz pianist, offered to be our manager and the ball started rolling. We had bookings everywhere, (we were so different to anyone else) touring country and interstate with the famous Ink Spots from America. We recorded five LP records.

In 1977, our 'Lotte and Johanna' partnership came to an end and we missed out on celebrating together being decorated with the 'Golden Cross of Merit' from the Austrian government for our contribution to Austrian culture in Australia.

I then formed a duo with Reimer, a German accordion player, and worked very successfully for 8 years as 'Lotte and Reimer'. In that time we also recorded three LPs.

In 1985 I got together with Jay, a musician/producer who had his own studio and together we recorded my first solo album 'The Zither, the Guitar and Me'. It sounded and felt good to me and I am now working on my seventh album.

These days Lotte and Johanna are open for bookings at retirement villages, probus clubs etc. - Please contact Lotte- 94987119 or lotte@zithermelodies.com. Look us up on www.lottelandl.com

"OVER THE HILLS" SOCIAL WALKING GROUP

The trip to Newcastle was cancelled, as Oma's Kitchen wasn't open – they now have a stall at Newcastle Farmers' Market on Sundays. Restaurant is only open Thursday, Friday & Saturday. We may do this trip one Thursday – let me know if interested.

On Sunday 31/3/2019-Monday 1/4/2019 we had our 2 days in the Blue Mountains. We did the Charles Darwin Walk to Wentworth Falls lookout, enjoyed lunch at a café in Wentworth Falls and then drove to Hampton and stayed at the refurbished Halfway House Hotel. After an enjoyable evening and breakfast we went to the pine forest searching for mushrooms. We saw lots of mushrooms but, despite all the recent rain, we did not find any of the edible chanterelle variety we normally pick.

On Sunday, 28/4/2019, we will walk in Fagan Park, Galston. Meet at 10:00 AM in the parking area inside the main entrance on Arcadia Road. N.B. There is an entry fee of $5 per car. After the walk we will have a BBQ lunch.

Please phone Ella by 26/4/19 if coming on this walk.

On Sunday, 26/5/2019, we will walk at West Head in Ku-Ring-Gai National Park. Meet at 10:00 AM at the parking area for the Salvation Loop Trail (an easy 4 km walk). Park entry fee is $12 per vehicle (or bring your NP Pass). Bring a picnic lunch. Please phone Alena by 24/5/2019 if coming on this walk (0418633092).

On Sunday, 23/6/2019, we will do the Bridge to Bridge Loop at Jamisontown (part of the 570 km Great River Walk). We will only do a 7 km easy loop walk. Meet at carpark behind Coffee Club, 78 Tench Avenue, Jamisontown. We will have lunch at the Coffee Club after the walk.

Please phone Ella by 21/6/2019 if coming on this walk.

Other walks will be on 21/7/2019 & 1/9/2019. Please mark these dates in your diary now and keep them free so that you can join us on our walks.

Arrangements are also being made for a week in Kangaroo Valley (4/11/2019-11/11/2019). If interested please advise ASAP, as accommodation is limited.

WORKING BEES

Working Bee, Saturday March 9th, 2019

Once again, a very good rollup of members wanting to help THEIR club. Without your help we would not be able to keep the Club running as well as it is. So, when you sit down and have a huge meal or a stein of Stiegl, say to yourselves – I helped make this club as good as it is. Apart from some very valuable tidying up, the workers attacked the huge hedge along our green area. A massive job.

Present at the last working bee were: Karin Childs, Rick Childs, Judy Dlask, who brought along one of her gugelhupfs for morning tea, Marc Durrenberger, Mark Grabe, Jutta Grabe, Lilla Kiss, Rene Louw, Frank Lorenz, Jan Meyer, Sylvia Miller, Steve Miller, Walter Roth, Grant Sainsbery, Austin Sainsbery, Louise Smith, Graeme Smith, Maria Spitzer, and Jenny Wandl.

NEXT WORKING BEE

Our next working bee will be on Saturday May 18th, starting at 9am, with morning tea at 11 and lunch after the work is done.
