PRESIDENTS REPORT

Hello All,

The Club goes from strength to strength – what was once a busy night has become quite normal. Birthdays at the club are becoming very popular, with groups of up to 50 people enjoying our great food and relaxed atmosphere. You can book your function with our restaurant. There is no hire charge, and you can run a tab in the bar.

Our dance functions are increasingly well attended. The Danish Club thanked us for the opportunity to hold their Queen's Birthday celebrations at our club. Orchestra leader Geoff Power even had his members learn the Danish National Anthem! The Mother's Day lunch saw the club full of happy families looking after their mothers in the best possible way – with lunch at the Austrian Club. At the special afternoon tea for our long-time members we were entertained by our lovely Lotte Landl who played all the tunes that the older club members know so well.

The Tiroler Abend was massive, with three birthday parties having great fun. The Hasenauer family celebrated the 17th birthday of son Max who is a very popular club member and always happy to help out where he can. The Brownhill group, celebrating Bevan's birthday, most wore dirndls or lederhosen, adding a lot to the Tirolean atmosphere. The best Slap Dancing group in Australia, St. Raphael's from Blacktown, gave a performance which showed our newer members how it is done and what fun it can all be.

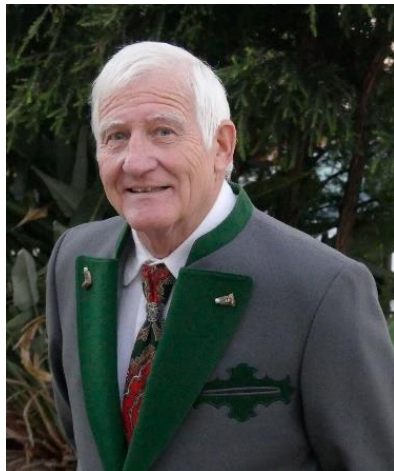

The Italian Night, with the lovely Mercedes entertaining, was also a great success. Don't miss Christmas in July, to be held over the weekend of July 26th to 28th. Lots of fun for young and old.

We recently had an inspection by the Licensing Police, who were happy with what they found, especially with our new camera surveillance system. Thanks to Steve Miller and Walter Roth for installing this. Under present Licencing laws the Licensee has to be in the Club any time that the bar is open. This is a big ask for one person, although I am always happy to be there. However Vice President Sylvia Miller and Assistant Secretary Jenny Wandl have done the Licensee Course so that Jutta and I can have the odd time off. The present Board works together very well and are always aware of the necessity to spread the load.

Don't forget, next time you are in the club, to come up and say hello.

STEAK WITH APPLES AND MUSHROOMS

Ingredients:

1.4 kg beef tenderloin steaks (six 170 g slices)
0.45 kg potatoes
2 egg yolks, well beaten
2 tablespoons ground horseradish
salt and pepper
2 tablespoons butter
6 mushrooms, peeled
2 granny smith apples, peeled, cored and sliced

Preparation.

Rub salt and pepper into both sides of the steaks.
Peel the potatoes and boil them in salted water for about 12 minutes.
When they are soft, take them out & put them through a potato ricer.
Mix the potatoes with the egg yolks, horseradish and a little salt and pepper.
Shape them into cakes that are roughly the size of your steaks.
Place the potato cakes on a greased cooking sheet and bake them in a 190° C oven for about 10 minutes, or until the tops turn a nice golden brown. Flip them over and repeat the other side. Remove from oven and keep warm.
While your steaks are cooking, slice the apples and sauté them with the mushrooms in melted butter.
When the meat has rested for about 10 minutes, assemble the dish. Start by placing a potato cake on the plate, then cover with sliced apples. Put the steak on top and finish with the mushrooms.

THE AUSTRIAN AIR RIFLE CLUB

Monthly competition results are:

	May		June
Colin Whatman	410.2	Eileen Birrell	431.4
Larissa Kalt	407.5	Kathleen Birrell	409.5
Alan Price	404.8	Steve Birrell	405.4

The monthly competition is run with a handicap score, enabling all participants to be on an even platform. The Air Rifle Club has a handicap programme on our dedicated computer, written by member Phil Angilley and we are very lucky to have his expertise. Now that some of us are shooting bench rest, therefore shooting higher scores, whilst others remain standing, our handicap system needed to be able to deal with the difference – which it does, after the competitor has submitted eight scores. The programme is easy to use and instantly gives us results meaning no matter whether we shoot sitting or standing, we can all compete in the same competition.

City of Shellharbour Air Rifle Championship 25 & 26 May

Some members made a weekend of it on the Illawarra Coast with their spouses and others came just for the day to compete in the Championship competition. For a few of our shooters it was the first time ever to shoot away from our club so it was interesting to see how another club operates. High scores eluded majority of us on the day. But winners were:

Singles - Larissa Kalt 3rd B grade with a score of 518

Singles Rest - Kathleen Birrell 2nd Rest 2 scoring 373

Teams Rest - Walter Roth and Steve Birrell 3rd Rest 1 with 762.

The rest of us will keep trying 😊

City of Fairfield Championship 15 & 16 June

A contingent of shooters organised themselves and headed to the Hubertus Club at Luddenham for this Cabramatta Club competition. Results were very exciting for the Austrian Air Rifle Club:

Singles standing - Steve Birrell 1st place C Grade, Kathleen Birrell 3rd place E Grade,

Singles rest – Steve Birrell 3rd Rest 1, Colin Whatman 1st Rest 4, Hubert Habicht 2nd Rest 4

Team rest – Steve Birrell & Alan Price 2nd Rest 1, Colin Whatman, Hubert Habicht 1st Rest 4

A terrific day for all our shooters and I hear they do a good lunch at the Hubertus Club!

Annual General Meeting

Due to travel plans by Committee members, our 2019 AGM will not be held until September.

Remember to check the notice board for upcoming competitions.

New members always welcome – come down to the club on Tuesday night – 7.30pm

Louise SMITH (0411 157 527)

A message to our young parents

At the Austrian Club we are very happy that you have found a place where you can bring the kids, have a good, hearty meal and enjoy the Austrian atmosphere. However at times the number of children here, and their behaviour, makes it uncomfortable for other diners.

We ask you to control your children's activities, especially the little ones. Children playing on the dance floor is quite okay. While running up and down the hall is not a great drama, shrieking while they do it is not acceptable. We know that very small kids will squeal. Please try to keep this to a minimum and put them in the highchairs if they can't behave.

Toys on the floor can be dangerous and we have a duty of care to our patrons to make sure that the club is safe for all. Bouncing balls is not a good idea, as they could go astray.

Please keep an eye on what your children are doing at all times and take control if behaviour gets out of hand. Our staff should not have to do this.

You are welcome and so are your littlies. Just let's keep the club comfortable for everyone.

GOLDEN OLDIES

For the last couple of months, our games were erratic with rain and public holidays interrupted Sundays. The ones we played were all with skeleton player numbers of 5 or even 4 per team. We have a few young German players who joined us, but as most of the Armenian players are not playing because of injuries, our Golden Oldies team is down on its luck with our own playing veterans being even older and are not also available either. As long we can keep the numbers up by minimal 8 for 2 teams, i.e.. NOT less than four per team, we keep turning up, which we monitor through our "whats up" before the Sunday game. Anyone reading this and who wants a casual 90 minutes game, starting at 10.30, please give me a ring.

See you at the pitch or at the Austrian Club, Kind regards

SCENIC AUSTRIA

A beautiful, manageable 4 day hiking tour.

Hiking in Austria is superb. There are several tour companies ready to advise, supply gear, route cards and make the whole thing easy. One of the hikes is the Zugspitze Circuit, a trek around the highest mountain in Germany, the Zugspitze (2,962m), starting and finishing in Garmisch-Partenkirchen, one of Germany's main ski and outdoor towns, in the Bavarian Alps just across the border from the Austrian Tyrol.

The summit of the Zugspitze is shared with Austria and the circuit traverses both countries. Lower slopes rise from the farmed valley to steep forests; above rise the sharp limestone peaks around the old glacier that forms the winter ski area and most of the side of the mountain.

This trek is notable for two gorges, adding extra interest at a lower level to what is already a nicely varied Alpine trek. The mountainous highlight is surely the Zugspitze. From outside Ehrwald there is a cable car to the summit, while from the Garmisch direction there is a funicular railway to the plateau plus either the final walk or a short cable car to the summit.

Trekking from village to village in the Alps is a great pleasure, the more so thanks to the jolly Alpine atmosphere in these places. The main street of Mittenwald is a happy scene with drinkers outside Bavarian bars.

The terrain is generally smooth and rolling, with some shorter and steeper sections. Some other treks in the Alps give a more general mix of Alpine scenery including rocky cols. Here on the Zugspitze Tour, the emphasis is on lower hillsides and woods, with more open tracks on the Austrian side.

German and Austrian signposting and way marking are excellent. You might notice that the Austrian signs are even more detailed and useful. Painted waymarks - often white and red painted flashes on rocks or trees - can be quite challenging. The biggest challenge on the four-day trek is the occasional rooty and rocky stretch of path, perhaps in steeper steps up or downhill. Generally it is a simple route to walk.

HISTORY OF THE AUSTRIAN CLUB

Building the back room and Schnapps bar.

By 1992 the Club's position and operation were secure and the numbers of members and guests enjoying the functions and the restaurant were very satisfactory. As always, maintenance work was done by volunteers. The back area of the club, built as four garages, was used mostly for storage of club supplies, as well as a shooting range. We acquired the land on the south side of the club to use for parking, which meant that we could better use the rear area as a "Members" area. In 1996 Harry Malcher drew up plans, which were passed by Council. The work was done by volunteers who also happened to be qualified tradesmen. Harry Malcher, Heinz Hirschback, Heinz Weissenberger, Albert Karlowatz and the football team who gathered as a man to lift the steel beams, all donated their time. John Riedl designed and built the new Schnapsbude.

In the days before alcohol testing, it was thought normal to end the night gathered around the Schnaps Bar. The Club was now considered complete. There were sub groups for Ten Pin Bowling, Bush Walking, a Choir, an Air Rifle Club, a Soccer Club, a Tennis Group, Preisschnapsen, and regular gatherings at the Stammtisch. A successful balance of good food, good entertainment and a "gemütlich" atmosphere kept the Club running for the next 20 years.

Vale Niki Lauder

ANDREAS NIKOLAUS LAUDA

(22 February 1949– 20 May 2019)

was an Austrian Formula One driver, a three-time F1 World Drivers' Champion, winning in 1975, 1977 and 1984, and an aviation entrepreneur. He founded and ran three airlines: Lauda Air, Niki, and Lauda.

Lauda Air started operations in 1985, and in 1989 started its first long-haul flights from Vienna to Sydney and Melbourne via Bangkok. The opening of a direct route from Australia to Vienna was celebrated in most of the Austrian community, who made this their airline of choice to fly to Europe. The cabin crew wore bright red tops and blue denim jeans – very classy. The bread rolls served were hot and crispy, just as Austrians like them. Nicki Lauda visited Sydney on the inaugural flight and the Austrian Club celebrated. The photo shows some of the club management team of the time with a cardboard cut-out of Lauda. During this time we were able to hold an annual raffle with first prize being a trip to Vienna with Lauda. Lauda Air became a subsidiary of Austrian Airlines in December 2000.

On 20 May 2019, Lauda died in his sleep, aged 70. His funeral, at St Stephen's Cathedral in Vienna, was attended by many prominent Formula One figures, including Lewis Hamilton, David Coulthard, Nico Rosberg, Alain Prost, Valtteri Bottas, Nelson Piquet, Gerhard Berger, Jean Alesi and Jackie Stewart along with Austrian politicians Arnold Schwarzenegger and Alexander van der Bellen, among others.

"OVER THE HILLS" SOCIAL WALKING GROUP

On Sunday, 28/4/2019, we walked in Fagan Park, Galston, and afterwards enjoyed a BBQ together.

On Sunday, 26/5/2019, we did the Salvation Loop Trail at West Head in Ku-Ring-Gai National Park. Beautiful weather for walking, but walk spoiled by biting insects.

On Sunday, 23/6/2019, the Bridge to Bridge Loop walk at Jamisontown was cancelled, due to ill health and other concerns. This walk has been re-scheduled to October (see below).

On Sunday, 21/7/2019, meet at 10:00 AM at the Visitors Centre in Ku-ring-gai Wildflower Gardens, 420 Mona Vale Road, St Ives. We will do the Solander Trail and afterwards have lunch at Terry Hills Tavern.

Please phone Alena by 19/7/2019 if coming on this walk (0418633092).

On Sunday, 1/9/2019, we will visit Bella Vista Farm Park, Elizabeth Macarthur Drive, Bella Vista (entry free). The 1835 Homestead is open for inspection on the first Sunday of each month from 9 AM to 12 noon. Meet near the Homestead at 10 AM and we will do an inspection first, before walking around the farm. There are BBQ facilities in the grounds, so bring your meat, drinks, plates & cutlery and we will work out who will bring nibbles, salads & cakes.

Email Ella by 20/8/2019 if coming on this walk so we can organise BBQ.

On Sunday, 6/10/2019, we will do the Bridge to Bridge Loop walk at Jamisontown (part of the 570 km Great River Walk). We will only do a 7 km easy loop walk. Meet at carpark behind Coffee Club, 78 Tench Avenue, Jamisontown. We will have lunch at the Coffee Club after the walk.

Please phone Ella by 4/10/2019 if coming on this walk.

Other walks will be on 4/11-11/11/2019 in Kangaroo Valley & end-of-year walk on 8/12/2019. Please mark these dates in your diary now and keep them free so that you can join us on our walks.

WORKING BEES

Did you notice during your last visit to the club that the front view is much more open and shows the truly Austrian architecture of our club? This is thanks to the regular working bees and those who give up a Saturday to take part. Next visit, look to your right along the edge of the driveway to admire the edging along the path, made from pavers that we had sitting there. Planted by this are some of Sylvia's agapanthus. It should look lovely when they flower.

Present and working hard on May 18th were Judith Dask, Marc Durrenberger, Jutta Grabe, Mark Grabe, René Loew, Jan Meyer, Sylvia Miller, Steve Miller, Danny Roller, Walter Roth, Ludwig Schmidberger, Louise Smith, Graeme Smith, Leon Smith, Maria Spitzer, and Elisabeth Wiesner.
